CEDAR LAKE SAILING CLUB (CLSC) - (newly organized in 2007 - to focus on teaching sailing rather than racing)

 Re-organized & Operated by John Davidson in 2007

- * The loss of 2 of the 5 racers from 2006- prompted a new mission for the future of sailing activities in 2007 and beyond
- * Newly sponsored by CLCC, as a CLCC sporting activity- supported by Ken Woodin pres. CLCC & CLCC Board
- * At end of 2007 season- CLCC (K. Woodin") presents CLSC with a very large CUP Trophy for the first "End of Season's" race
 - * plus an "Apré Sail" barbecue gathering after the first CUP RACE finished
 - * Apré Sail" gatherings after each Cup race has been graciously given by Diana & Eric Bossard ever since 2007
- * Sailing Rules, Safety, and Procedures SHEET (1) for Racing- given all participants
- * FREE sailing lessons offered and given to all who contacted John Davidson after the "free teaching" offers are published in the BLURB each Spring
 - * George Strother, Sr. and John Davidson provided the free lessons sessions (126 sessions over 9 years)
 - * Lessons usually given in four 1-1.5 hour sessions
 - * Students solo in CLSC trainer sunfish, with instructor coaching from another sunfish close-by
- * Racing "Practice sessions" held throughout summer (without scoring or records) in prep for the "End of Season" Race and to sharpen sailing skills.
- * Separate Multipage "Guide booklets developed for "Learning to Sail" and for "Sailboat Racing"
 - * Both guide booklets- posted for study &/or downloading from the CLCC website (CedarlakeCC.com)
- * CUP renamed (2016) to the "John Davidson Annual Cup" for his 38 years of organized sailing activities @ Cedar Lake
